

MTD Roadmap

Track your Making Tax Digital (MTD) journey to make sure you are ready and compliant with the changes ahead.

MTD for VAT becomes mandatory for VAT-registered businesses and organisations with taxable turnover above the VAT threshold.

October
2019

April
2019

Six-month deferral of MTD for VAT for some more complex businesses ends.

Soft landing period for MTD for VAT ends and businesses must use digital links between all parts of their functional HMRC compatible software.

April
2021

April
2022

You are here

MTD for VAT will be mandatory for all VAT-registered businesses and organisations, regardless of their turnover.

MTD for Income Tax will be mandatory for most self-employed businesses and landlords with annual business and/or property income above £10,000.

April
2024

2026

The current earliest date at which businesses will need to report Corporation Tax via MTD.

To make sure your business stays on the right track on the ever-winding MTD roadmap, please speak to our team today.

